Any fighter, who is so indicated or warned 3 times or more, may be disqualified. The referee's decision is final.

The Purpose of a Warning:

The purpose of a warning is to deter fighters from breaking rules during the fight and to protect the fighters from injury.

Count Procedure for a Fighter Falling Out of the Ring:

To ensure the safety of all fighters, it is not permissible to intentionally throw your opponent out of the ring. However, if a fighter falls through or over the ropes accidentally, the following rules will apply:

- a. If a fighter falls out of the ring (completely off the ring apron), the referee shall count to twenty (20) seconds.
- b. If a fighter falls out of the ring (completely off the ring apron), the referee will start counting; however, if the fighter returns to the ring before the count ends, he will not be penalized.

- c. If both fighters fall out of the ring (completely off the ring apron), the referee shall start counting. If one fighter tries to prevent his opponent from re-entering the ring before the count ends, he or she will be warned or disqualified.
- d. If both fighters fall out of the ring (completely off the ring apron), the referee shall start counting; the one that returns to the ring before the count ends will be considered the winner. If neither fighter can, the result will go to score cards.
- e. If a fighter is knocked out of the ring but lands on the ring apron the referee will start a 10 count and treat it as a normal knockdown.

RULE 11: THE JUDGES

1. Responsibilities:

- a. The judges are independent and free to score within the rules and normal practice.
- b. Each judge shall sit on a different side of the ring and should be isolated from the audience.
- c. The judges shall remain neutral during the match, when a rule violation is noticed the judge should notify the referee exclusively about the violation. This should be done during the 1-minute break period.
- d. At the end of each round, the judges shall complete the score sheets for that round.
- e. The judges are not allowed to leave their seats until the match ends and the results have been announced.

RULE 12: TIMEKEEPER, KNOCKDOWN COUNTER AND ANNOUNCER

- 1. Seating for the timekeeper, knockdown counter and announcer will be located next to the ring. The timekeeper must be provided with two watches, a hammer and a bell. He/she must ensure that any stoppage during the round is not part of the three-minute round time. During the one-minute break, he/she must notify the corner men that only ten seconds remain until the next round.
- 2. Duties and Responsibilities:
 - a. A ten second warning will be given prior to the start of each round to enable the corner men to clear the ring.
 - b. A bell will be used to signal the start and end of each round.
 - c. At the end of each round, the bell shall be rung, even if the referee is still counting.
- 3. Announcer's Duties:

- a. If the fight is stopped part way through round 1, no score will be issued. The fight result will be entered "stopped with no score" (i.e. "No contest").
- b. If the fight is stopped part way through round 2, the fight will be scored based on the results of round 1 only.
- c. If the fight is stopped part way through round 3, the fight will be scored based on the results of round 1 and round 2 only.

Win on points:

At the end of a contest, the fighter who has been awarded more points by the majority of Judges will be declared the winner.

2. Win by Voluntary Retirement:

If a fighter withdraws willingly from the contest owing to injury or other reasons, or if he fails to resume boxing immediately after the rest interval, his opponent shall be declared the winner.

3. Win by Referee Stopping Contest:

a. RSC Outclassed

If a fighter, in the Referee's opinion, is being outclassed by his opponent, or is receiving excessive punishment, the Referee shall stop the contest and his opponent shall be declared the winner.

b. RSC Injury

If a fighter, in the Referee's opinion, is unfit to continue the contest due to either severe injury or other physical reasons, the contest shall be stopped and his opponent shall be declared the winner. The right to make such a decision rests with the Referee, who may consult the Doctor. If the Doctor is consulted, the Referee must follow his advice. It is suggested that the Referee should check whether the other contestant is injured or not before making the decision.

The doctor has the right to stop the contest if there is sufficient medical reason not to allow further fighting. The first step the Doctor must take is to inform the Referee to stop the contest.

The Referee will stop the contest for the medical officials to examine the physical condition of the contestant to see whether he is fit enough to fight, using not more than one minute of time. (The medical official is the Doctor for that particular contest). When the Referee calls for the Doctor to assess the contestant, no one else to accompany them.

While the Doctor and the Referee are in the ring the seconds/corner men are forbidden to be in or on the edge of the ring.

If an illegal blow thrown by the injured fighter's opponent caused the injury, the referee will consider (and may consult with the judges) if the blow was thrown deliberately or by accident. The referee may decide to disqualify the fighter or issue a warning, in which case the bout will be judged as follows:

- i. If the fight is stopped part way through round 1, no score will be issued.
 - ii. If the fight is stopped part way through round 2, the fight will be scored based on the results of round 1 only.
 - iii. If the fight is stopped part way through round 3, the fight will be scored based on the results of round 1 and round 2 only.
- c. Being injured severely or often hit on the head (RCS Head):
If a fighter is severely injured or has received frequent blows to the head without being able to protect himself, as this may cause brain damage, the Referee will order the contest to stop immediately without having to count that contestant out, or, if already counting, without counting up to ten.

- d. Being counted out according to the agreed rules (RCS Count Limit):

When any fighter is counted 3 times within 1 round or 3 times in different rounds, the contest will be stopped and his opponent will be declared the winner.

4. Win by Disqualification

If a fighter is disqualified from the contest, his opponent will be declared the winner. Fighters may not receive compensation for the contest at the discretion of the NSCSA.

5. Win by Knockout

If a fighter is “down” and fails to continue the contest within 10 seconds, his opponent will be declared the winner by a knockout.

6. No Contest

If the Referee orders the contest to be stopped due to incidents not the responsibility of the contestants or within the control of the Referee, such as damage to the ring, electricity failure, etc., an announcement shall be made in these circumstances that “there is no competition

7. Win by Walkover

When one fighter is in the ring and ready to fight and his/her opponent does not turn up after the announcement of his name within 5 minutes, the bell shall be rung and the Referee shall declare the fighter who is present to be the winner. He/she shall then tell the fighter who is present to go to the center of the ring, and raise his/her hand after declaring him/her the winner.

8. Draw
